Searching for the most gorgeous Lake Norman point lot with room to build a luxurious estate with big water views? Or perhaps you'd like to build two separate residences? This is the property for you!

Composed of two waterfront lots, this hard to find property has over 1.7 acres and 644' +/- of main channel frontage that offers nearly 180 degree views from northeast to straight south. Not only is it relatively level with big water views but it also has mature hardwoods around the proposed building site(s) and an open area near the waterfront. Very few Lake Norman lots have this kind of potential.
